

THANKSGIVING DISTRIBUTION INFO!

Thinking about Thanksgiving yet? So are we! Our distribution will be a little different this year, so we have prepared some details for you to go over so your family knows what to expect. Based on our current inventory, this is the most equitable way that we can distribute to our community so that everyone will have food to share for the upcoming holiday.

Food Options:

- Families with 1-2 individuals will have the option of choosing a 3lb bag of chicken breasts or a whole chicken.
- Families with 3-4 individuals will have the option to choose from a 3lb bag of chicken breasts, a whole chicken, or turkey.
- Families with 5-6 individuals will have the option to choose from a 3lb bag of chicken breasts, a whole chicken, or turkey.
- Families with 7+ individuals will have the option to choose from a 3lb bag of chicken breasts, a whole chicken, or turkey.
- Vegan and Vegetarian options will be available for anyone upon request, while supplies last.

Documentation:

- If you need to adjust your household size, you must do so by November 15. You will not be able to change your household size the day of. Individuals added to household MUST live at the same residence as the account holder. You may not add visiting friends/family.
- Families must choose only one pickup site—either a TCFB or satellite location—to pick up their Thanksgiving food.
- Families who go to satellite locations must pre-register at that location for Thanksgiving Distribution.
- If you are picking up for someone who cannot attend, please provide a dated note giving you permission with a copy of their ID.
- No ID or income required; ID is helpful for the check-in process.
